Projects:

Notes +

Notes + is a fully functioning MEAN stack application with pug and API implementation that allows users to create custom notebooks and custom notes within them. It has several different CRUD systems and a nice hand drawn feel for the UI.

Baldwin's Books

Baldwin's Books is a fully functioning e-commerce application that runs on the LAMP stack with the Stripe payment API. Utilized agile workflow on a team with 2 other developers.

Dots

Dots is a game created with only pure vanilla JavaScript. Behind the scenes the game has a full MVC architecture and uses HTML5 canvas for the interactivity.

Secret Show

The Secret Show website was my first experience working with a real client. The Secret Show was a student film project aiming to create a TV show pilot that is going to be pitched to Adult Swim. The website takes advantage of Angular and Firebase to keep up with user input.
